Alumni Board of Directors Marketing Committee

Committee Members: Walter Hoff – Chair; Kelley Delaney, Russ Sharpe, Antonio McDonald, Michael Qui, Reece Buendia

Purpose: To increase the engagement of the alumni population by elevating the awareness of the Alumni Board and Alumni Relations, ultimately leading to greater numbers of alumni becoming more emotionally and financially involved with UNH.

Marketing Committee Update: June 2017

This report will update our activities and recap our accomplishments during the 2016-2017 school year:

Goal: Continue to increase Alumni participation on our four Social Media platforms.

Social Media Strategy

	Start 7/1/2016	As of 6/9/17	Percent Increase	Number Increase	Goal by 6/30/17
Facebook (likes)	3367	3580	6%	213	3,703
Twitter Followers	596	708	19%	112	715
LinkedIn Members	1,307	1316	1%	132	1,437
Instagram Followers	152	346	128%	194	304

Progress: By far, our biggest success was getting more alumni to follow us on Instagram. We exceeded our goal of Twitter followers. We ended behind our goal of LinkedIn members and Facebook followers.

Alumni Board of Directors Marketing Committee

Goal: Work with the Benefits and Services Committee (BSC) to promote the many diversified benefits that alumni can take advantage.

- We will work with the BSC to help them with the messaging. Chris Campbell of the BSC will spearhead the effort of pulling together the benefits and decide on the sequencing of what benefits will be presented to alumni
- Antonio McDonald will work with Chris to develop the messaging for each featured benefit
- Alumni who take advantage of promoted benefits will be tracked. We will select three alumni to feature in a short video that will be placed on our social media platforms by May 2017

Progress: The campaign that promotes our benefits to alumni launched in April. Antonio McDonald and Tony Distasio, working with Chris Campbell from the Benefits and Services committee, began execution of a well-conceived strategy that is marketed presently through Facebook and Twitter. One of our many great benefits is highlighted twice a month on these platforms. Plans to use LinkedIn and Instagram as promotion vehicles are underway.

Goal: Spotlight the work that our micro-networks are doing to engage alumni within certain professional affinity groups by conducting short features on our social media platforms.

- We will select 6 micro-networks to feature on our social media platforms by the end of the school year
- The selected micro-networks will talk about the benefits of being part of the network to undergrad affinity groups who would align with that network (e.g. accounting, forensic sciences)

Progress: With the focus on branding and other initiatives that Marketing and Communications was involved with, we were unable to have them help us put these features together. We will look to get the group's help in the next school year.

Goal: Working in conjunction with the Programs and Events Committee, we will start a WNHU micro-network.

- Have at least 10 participating members on the WNHU micro-network by May 2017
- The WNHU micro-network will be fully established by May 2017
- Engage WNHU in promoting the ABOD and Alumni Relations efforts to better engage the alumni. Suggest an "Alumni Show," or "Alumni Spotlight" where we can talk about the micro-network, alumni benefits, and other things that would be of importance to Alumni

Progress: On May 10, we sent out a letter to more than 170 WNHU alum asking them to consider joining the newly-formed micro-network. Our goal was to have 10 alum signed up by June. Through May 16, we had 20. Russ Sharpe will be leading an effort to energize this group. He intends to announce the launch of the network at an annual gathering of WNHU alums in June, then have an official kickoff with the network.

Goal: Solicit alumni volunteers to share their knowledge and expertise with undergrads and grads on professional skills that would start or enhance their careers. Work with the Benefits and Services Committee to access the "Get Involved" database to find interested alumni to do mini workshops on topics such as mock interviews, 401K, Health Insurance, salary negotiations, and more.

Alumni Board of Directors Marketing Committee

- Create a call-to-action video that is featured on our social media and home page of the alumni website that creates a compelling call-to-action for alumni who want to showcase their talents and help fellow alum develop skills and acquire knowledge that benefits them personally and professionally
- Feature ABOD members in videos and in on-campus workshops
- Have at least one video created and two alums featured in workshops by May 2017

Progress: The “Get Involved” database includes information on how alums want to get involved in various pursuits to give back to UNH. We need to create opportunities in order for them to participate. We will think through options as a Committee and plan a strategy in the upcoming school year.

Additional Activity/Accomplishments

Marketing and Communications

We have had great interactions with the Marketing and Communications group. Committee member Reece Buendia participated in a research study being done that would create a greater brand identity for the university.

Once a Managing Editor of the Alumni Magazine is hired, an editorial board comprised of alumni will be started. Committee member Reece Buendia will serve on the editorial board. Reece has recruited another interested alum. We will also talk with other board members about participating and look to get other non-board alums interested.

Senior 17

The highly successful program targeted at the graduating senior class started last year to create excitement about becoming an engaged alum completed just before the May commencement. Participation by graduating seniors increased 50% over last year. Seven students completed all 17 weeks of activities and events, which was double from last year.

Alumni Board Presentation

We have provided input to a skeleton of a presentation that Board President Nyle Davey started that will become a very compelling story about the Board and Alumni Relations that could be used with present and future alums, Board of Governors, and others. We talked to the Board about the initiative at the May meeting and sent each committee chair the presentation and asked them to provide input on their members, mission/vision/goals of their committee, and major initiatives both past and present. We will continue to build the presentation and ask Marketing and Communications to help us polish it up. Expected timeframe on completion is October.

Next meeting: Tentative –Wednesday Sept 13 from 7-8 pm

Active Micro-networks year end summary

- ii. Accountants Alumni Micro-Network: An affinity group that aims to interact with UNH Accounting Society and with current accounting students. Alumni Michael Qiu continues to lead this interactive micro-network. A networking event between Micro-Network and Accounting Society was hosted on campus. 10 alumni, 2 faculty members, 2 OAR staff and 10-15 students attended. A mentor program was proposed and initiated this year. To date 1 student has participated in this newly launched program.
- iii. Life Sciences Alumni Micro-Network: The study and industrial application of living organism, botany, zoology, microbiology, physiology, biochemistry and related areas is an affinity to many alumni. Board Member Dawn Alderman continues to provide leadership to a micro-network with an emphasis in the university to employment transition, mentoring and impacting intern opportunities.
- iv. WNHU Alumni Micro-Network: First broad casting on July 4, 1973, WNHU has touched the lives of many University students by way of its programming and as an on-campus activity. On May 10, a letter was sent to more than 170 WNHU alum asking them to consider joining the newly-formed micro-network. That same day, four people signed up. Our goal is to get a least 10 people; as of May 16, 20 people signed up. Russ Sharpe will be leading an effort to connect with this group. He intends to announce the launch of the network at an annual gathering of WNHU alums in June, then have an official kickoff with the network.

- v. Alumni Lawyers Micro-Network: Support Programs and Events targeting identified undergraduate or graduate Pre-Law Students and other students considering applying to law school by developing alumni lawyer pathways. Alumni Board of Directors President, Nyle Davey identified a new lead, Jason Gamsby. Attorney Gamsby assumed lead of the Lawyers micro-network in February 2017. Attorney Lou Todisco participated again in the 14th Amendment program. Message from Attorney Gamsby below:

As a new incoming chair of the Micro-Network of Alumni lawyers, I plan on recruiting additional members to the committee and to create a strong online presence for current students to connect with the network. It is my hope to attend open house events at the University to speak with prospective students regarding careers in the law. I would also like to speak with current students, along with members of the micro-network in the paralegal programs regarding careers as a paralegal and also the realities of obtaining a law degree and the prospects of employment as a lawyer in the State of Connecticut.

- vi. The Social Engineer: This started as a “pop-up” opportunity that the Board has supported. It has a core of approximately 200 engineers, most of whom are University of New Haven alumni that were already organized by their own efforts. Board Member John Capozzo and Dan Markwat along with OAR’s Heather Alpaugh have been communicating with the members to foster closer ties to the University as a Micro-Network interfacing with a larger entity that includes engineers with common interests, but not affiliated with the University.
- vii. International Alumni Micro-Network: Alumni Michael Qiu is the lead. Currently, the leader has identified alumni members in Dubai, China, India, Egypt, Vietnam and Thailand. Micro-Network members are being tapped to support current students to offer support and information based on their experiences. Mr. Qiu continues to work with the UNH International Student Association communities to support activities organized by country of origin. Mr. Qiu has connected with Shobi, VP of international Admissions. Initiated an international applicants outreach program with Jackie Chu, called and helped 8 Chinese applicants to complete the application and requested missing support, more to come.

Inactive Micro-Networks (Unchanged from previous Chairs (Nyle Davey) final remarks June 2016):

- i. Human Resource Professionals Micro-Network: No lead has been identified. No Report. This Micro-Network remains undeveloped.
- ii. Chicago Area Alumni Micro-Network: The Chicago area held an alumni event on Sept. 2012. While a core group of 30 alumni have been identified, this Micro-Network remains undeveloped. Status is unchanged.
- iii. Micro-Network of Alumni in Isreal: On January 10, 2016, President Kaplan, with the assistance of the Office of Advancement and OAR, hosted a reception of Alumni in Isreal. The opportunity yielded a core group to provide leadership a Micro-Network to serve the interests of the University, prospective students, current students, and alumni. A social media in FaceBook has been organized. It is populated with 20 participants. No doubt about it this “pop-up” opportunity warrants further development, including identification of a leader and on-going agenda options.

- iv. Southeastern Connecticut Alumni Micro-Network: The intersection of art, design and engineering is in southeastern Connecticut. Board Member Cynthia Lamb, in cooperation with Professor Michelle Mason, are looking to celebrate several aspects of the region's technology in submarines and sonar with its art resources, including the University's Lyme Academy College of Fine Art, into a project that melds these various points of affinity into a visual arts presentation that pushes traditional boundaries for each such affinity.
- v. Young Engineers Micro-Network: Board Member John Capozzo is the lead. The School of Engineering accepted the focus on Spring 2016 Expo that show cases student projects. The focus will shift to the 2017 Expo. A second focal point for planning purposes is the transition of young alumni from the University into advanced studies programs, including positioning undergraduates to be better prepared for the rigors of advanced studies. This Micro-Network is targeting the nexus between the local chapter of the national association for engineers with the goal of increasing student participation and continuity as alumni engaged in the national association. Continued development is anticipated for next year.
- viii. New York City Metropolitan Area Alumni Micro-Network: This Micro-Network has existed since the kick-off event held in the Spring of 2014. Former OAR Zak Rosen is now working in the City and has agreed to continue to support this effort. An agenda and focus will be developed during 2016-2017.
- ix. Atlanta Area Alumni Micro-Network: Board Member Dan Vanacore is the lead. Major events have been held in the Atlanta area in 2009, 2011, and 2014. This Micro-Network reviewed and gave feedback on the Give Back Survey at the request of the Benefit and Services Committee and OAR. A more informal program or event is the target for this Micro-Network in Spring of 2017.
- x. Up-State New York Area Alumni Micro Network: Board Member Arpad Kolozary is the lead. The Up-State alumni base grew by 9 new 2015 alumni, bringing it to a total of 226 alumni. The Network plans to support Admission events with prospective students and their families. Planning has been initiated for an event in conjunction with the 2016 Saratoga Horse Racing Season. Also, attention is being provided to coordinating with Office of Admissions and offering Network members to an opportunity to participate.
- xi. Forensic Science Micro-Network: Former Board Member Erica Nadeau is the lead. Alumni members of the Northeast Association of Forensic Scientists held a reception on October 15, 2015 during NEAFS annual meeting similar to the one held by Lee College of Criminal Justice at a national meeting level. Incoming NEAFS Program Chair is another UNH Alumnus, Beth Saucier-Goodspeed, and preliminary plans to hold another Reunion event, including alumni in the greater Atlantic City area.
