

College to offer new master's degree

NEW LONDON — The University of New Haven's Southeastern Campus will add a program this fall: a Master of Science degree in professional education, focusing on current trends in the classroom.

To start the program, the school will host a professional development seminar for certified teachers about the topic "Millennials, Media Literacy and Pop Culture's Influence in the K-12 Classroom."

It will be held from 3:30 p.m. to 5 p.m. May 22 in the Weller Center at Mitchell College. Seating is limited, and registration is required.

Call 701-5454 or e-mail SECampus@newhaven.edu

Submissions for the Education Calendar must be received by the Bulletin at least three days before an event to ensure they are included in the daily listing. To submit information or photos for the Education Calendar, e-mail schools@norwichbulletin.com. Call education reporter Maïsa Maldonado at 425-4255 or e-mail mmaldonado@norwichbulletin.com

