

Thursda
June
2008
12:07 P
ET

Anderson resigns as Woodland football coach

BY ROGER CLEVELAND

The coach who brought Woodland Regional High School the first two team state championships in school history has resigned to pursue a college coaching career.

The first head football coach in Hawks' history, Chris Anderson, is moving on to the University of New Haven as an assistant coach in charge of wide receivers.

"My whole life I have always had aspirations and dreams of coaching in college and someday maybe in the NFL," Anderson said. "When UNH brought football back to the university, I got an opportunity from Coach (Peter) Rossomando, and it felt really good. I'm getting older now, and I certainly don't want to be old and gray saying 'I wish I did this or that.' I'm kind of like chasing a childhood dream right now."

Thursda
June
2008
12:07 P
ET

Anderson resigns as Woodland football coach

BY ROGER CLEVELAND

The coach who brought Woodland Regional High School the first two team state championships in school history has resigned to pursue a college coaching career.

The first head football coach in Hawks' history, Chris Anderson, is moving on to the University of New Haven as an assistant coach in charge of wide receivers.

"My whole life I have always had aspirations and dreams of coaching in college and someday maybe in the NFL," Anderson said. "When UNH brought football back to the university, I got an opportunity from Coach (Peter) Rossomando, and it felt really good. I'm getting older now, and I certainly don't want to be old and gray saying 'I wish I did this or that.' I'm kind of like chasing a childhood dream right now."

Thursda
June
2008
12:07 P
ET

Anderson resigns as Woodland football coach

BY ROGER CLEVELAND

The coach who brought Woodland Regional High School the first two team state championships in school history has resigned to pursue a college coaching career.

The first head football coach in Hawks' history, Chris Anderson, is moving on to the University of New Haven as an assistant coach in charge of wide receivers.

"My whole life I have always had aspirations and dreams of coaching in college and someday maybe in the NFL," Anderson said. "When UNH brought football back to the university, I got an opportunity from Coach (Peter) Rossomando, and it felt really good. I'm getting older now, and I certainly don't want to be old and gray saying 'I wish I did this or that.' I'm kind of like chasing a childhood dream right now."