

Clark receives merit award

WEST HAVEN — University of New Haven (UNH) student Sarah Clark, of Watertown, has been recognized as a member of the UNH student chapter of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) which recently received the Superior Merit Award for the 2007-08 year. The UNH chapter was honored among 400 SHRM student chapters nationwide for sharing critical information and teaching job training within the state of Connecticut.

Over the past year, the UNH student chapter has developed programs and invited guest speakers to discuss careers in human resources and professional development.

