

University of New Haven

QUICK GUIDE TO COVERING THE COST OF COLLEGE

The idea of paying for college might seem overwhelming at first, but there are a variety of ways to finance your student's education. At the University of New Haven, we're committed to supporting your family throughout the process.

Read on to discover the many ways you and your student can cover the cost of college!

Financial Aid Resources

A college education is an investment in your child's future, and cost shouldn't get in the way of their success.

No matter where your student attends college, the school should provide your family the resources you need to be supported throughout the journey.

"I'm in the University of New Haven Honors Program and I was awarded an additional scholarship which helped reduce my tuition by nearly half, so don't write off schools based on cost. Keep your eyes on the scholarships that are offered locally as well as opportunities from generous alumni to help further lower the cost."

Ryan Horgan, Computer Science Major and Honors Student

The University of New Haven offers all future Chargers a comprehensive financial aid program with opportunities to receive support through grants, scholarships, student loans, and part-time employment on campus.

93% of our full-time undergraduate students receive some form of financial assistance with an average award of $17,538.

Get in touch with our dedicated financial aid staff today.

Tools for Financial Wellness

When you send your student off to college, it is important that they have a solid understanding of finance.

For many students, college is often the first time they need to make daily decisions about money. So it's very important that they're prepared. Doing so early will give them the confidence they need to make smart financial decisions down the road.

At the University of New Haven, we understand that there's a lot of financial information out there, but which advice should you take? We've put together a list of helpful financial wellness tools for students and parents like you, so your family can make informed decisions when the time comes to pay for college. **Click here to check them out!** iGrad is a FREE financial literacy platform that can help your family search for scholarships, manage debt, connect with loan specialists and much more! We've partnered with this great platform to put a financial wellness toolbox in the hands of students and their families.

Looking for ways to improve your financial wellness?

**Learn how iGrad can help your family achieve your financial goals.**

Proven Success for Graduates

The college your student chooses should prepare them to find success after graduation, so they can follow their dreams and pay for their education.

Student success stories, as well as stats and rankings, are a great way for colleges to prove that the education they provide is worth the cost.

At the University of New Haven, we build future career success right into our students' academic experience:

For the ninth year in a row, we've been ranked a top-tier university by U.S. News & World Report in its annual "Best Colleges" rankings. We were also ranked in the "Best Value" list of regional colleges in the North.

97% of our 2019 alumni were employed or in graduate school within six months of earning their degree.

We were recently ranked #17 in "Best Career Services" by The Princeton Review for our ability to help students turn their majors into successful careers.

Chargers go on to find success with notable employers like CNN, Microsoft, the NFL Network, Saturday Night Live, and many more!

Explore Financial Aid Options

We want to help families like yours pay for college and give students the opportunity to thrive on campus and after graduation.

We're committed to being your financial aid ally every step of the way!

University of New Haven

Located in West Haven, Connecticut