What the Right University Will Do for You

(Insider Advice on Discovering Yours)

Every student's college experience should be as unique as they are—that's why it's important to look for schools that encourage you to explore your passions in and out of the classroom. Use our advice from actual University of New Haven students to discover the attributes of your best-fit college!

Your right university will... provide limitless academic offerings and support.

Explore colleges with a wide variety of majors, minors, internships, and mentorship opportunities. Exposure to different fields and experiences will give you the well-rounded education that employers love.

"The University of New Haven went to the top of my list after I learned how in-depth the Computer Science program is. They offer so many specific electives that guide you toward career fields like cybersecurity and artificial intelligence."

Ryan Horgan, Computer Science Major

The University of New Haven provides limitless academic and co-curricular opportunities across our 5 colleges and schools. Every program is grounded in hands-on learning.

For instance, at the heart of our campus is the Bergami Center for Science, Technology, and Innovation. This state-of-the-art space features technologically advanced 'smart' classrooms, equipped to provide the perfect place for students to learn, create, and collaborate with peers and faculty.

Your right university will... have a vibrant community.

Look for colleges that provide you with ample opportunities to have new experiences and make friends outside the classroom. That way, you can find your place in the campus community and make memories that stick with you beyond graduation!

Our campus is small enough to feel personal but big enough to offer more than 150 student organizations! You can lead your own clubs, attend classes where professors know your name, meet new friends, and cheer on the Chargers as they compete! Here, there's never a dull moment.

"The low student-to-teacher ratio was a big draw for me because I don't like being a number. I want to be engaged and for people on campus to know who I am, and I get that as a student here."

Ariana Eastwood,
Forensic Science Major

Your right university will... give you access to leaders and achievers.

You can't beat a school that will give you access to their alumni network. When you have the chance to engage with leaders in your field of study, it gives you the opportunity to land internships and great jobs after graduation.

We have over 60,000 alums around the world! Our network has leaders across a variety of fields and contains doctors, CEOs, artists and more. Plus, we have resources on campus to support your growth like the Career Development Center—which has been ranked among the best in the country by The Princeton Review.

"At on campus Open Houses, alumni show up to tell their stories and it really helps prospective students. As a senior now, having the chance to meet alumni helps me know what steps to take after graduation. No matter what I do, I want to come back and help the next wave of students too."

Chris Fogarty, Criminal Justice Major
