

CONNECTICUT POLICE EXECUTIVES JUVENILE JUSTICE CONFERENCE

Save the Date:
April 7th-8th 2016

Our youth's most valuable resource is YOU!

- This conference is being provided to you at no cost.
- Continuing Education Credits offered from POST
- Participants will leave with
 - A better understanding of today's youth
 - The implementation of evidence-based programs
 - The impact of trauma/violence on youth
 - Juvenile justice reform in CT
 - Strategies for juvenile reentry
 - Building trust in the community

Our goal is to collaborate with police executives to address current trends in improving the juvenile justice system. We aim to provide you with up-to-date materials that can be easily shared with your officers and the community.

The event will be held at UNH's Saw Mill Campus

Register at TYJConference.eventbrite.com

Hosted By:

TOW Youth Justice Institute (UNH) and Center for Advanced Policing UNH, in association with the Connecticut Police Officer Standards and Training Council, and the Connecticut Police Chiefs Association

University of New Haven

