Students Admitted to Doctoral Candidacy

James Albrecht
Dissertation Title: “Examining Citizen Perceptions of Public Safety, Trust in Police, Police Misconduct, and the Potential for Police Reform within Ukraine During a Time of Inter-Ethnic Conflict”

Kristen Elink-Schuurman-Laura
Dissertation Title: “The Impact of Forensic Databases on the Criminal Justice System”

Alexis Hayton
Dissertation Title: “Understanding Factors that Impact Cyberbullying Offending and Victimization”

John Hitzeman
Dissertation Title: “A Social Network Analysis Approach to Identifying Predictors of Promotion Within the Chinese Communist Party”

Peter Massey
Dissertation Title: “The Perception of the CSI Effect and its Possible Changes on Evidence Examinations Requested of the Connecticut Department of Public Safety and Scientific Services Forensic Laboratory”

Joshua Regan
Dissertation Title: “The Maritime Piracy Index”

Melissa Smith-Inglis
Dissertation Title: “A Closer Examination of Key Determinants of Violent Victimization and Violent Behavior in Prison: Is Prison Violence Triggered by Deprivation or Importation?”

Recent Publications

Recent Conference Presentations

