We Are Committed To Student Success!

College is not a path students take alone.

The University provides students with many levels of academic support and we encourage students to be proactive in communicating their academic needs.

We want to share with you today our campus resources for academic success.

University of New Haven

SOAR

Welcome on behalf of the members of the faculty at the University of New Haven.

Our goal is to prepare students to be lifelong learners and as a university we are dedicated to the future success of our students.

That dedication is reflected in the quality of teaching, thoughtful advising, and academic support from our faculty and staff.

Welcome from the Provost's Office

Student communication with professors is very important part of academic success.

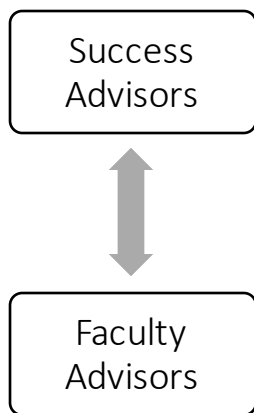

- ✓ Every course has a syllabus provided within Canvas, our learning management platform
  - Course expectation
  - Class schedule
  - Contact information for faculty member
- ✓ Students can contact professors by email
- ✓ We encourage students to visit their faculty member during office hours, specific time periods for student to visit in office or on Zoom.
- ✓ Professors will provide feedback to students on their work, provide grades with Canvas and share additional academic concerns through Navigate.
- ✓ Our support systems will reach out to students in responses, alerting them to campus resources.

Students should monitor Canvas and Navigate closely and watch for email communication from faculty.

Department of your faculty member is identified by the first four letters of the course number!

Your Advisors are assigned based on your major. Your advisors are here to help you in a variety of ways, including helping plan courses.

New Haven

Welcome from the Center for Learning Resources
(CLR)

The Center for Learning Resources (CLR) provides academic content support to University of New Haven students by employing metacognitive strategies, helping students to gain awareness of and apply optimal learning processes in the creative pursuit of becoming independent learners.

CLR tutors focus sessions on discussions and demonstrations of key concepts and processes, using external examples to assist students in grasping and applying material.

The CLR was the 2016 recipient of the “Tutoring Program of Excellence Award” from the Association of Tutoring Professionals. The center provides a supportive environment where tutors listen to students’ needs and work to provide lessons geared toward individual learning styles.
