Position Title:
Assistant Director of Sports Performance
Search #21-19A

The University of New Haven is accepting applications for the position of Assistant Director of Sports Performance. This is a full-time, 12-month position that has FLSA exempt classification. The selected candidate will assist the Director of Sports Performance in the development, instruction, and implementation of strength and conditioning programs for all 18 varsity men’s and women’s athletics teams. The position will interact with various constituency groups both internal and external to the University.

Responsibilities include the representative knowledge, skills, and ability to:
- Using independent judgment and discretion, instruct, educate, and train student-athletes so they are properly prepared for practices and competitions.
- Train, encourage and motivate student-athletes.
- Manage various issues with student athletes in an effective and professional manner.
- Educate, instruct, and demonstrate proper techniques, strategies and use of strength training equipment.
- Work closely with the Director of Sports Performance to evaluate the strengths and weaknesses of student-athletes and then develop programs and techniques to help optimize their skill and performance.
- Assist the Director of Sports Performance in planning and organizing training sessions.
- Remain abreast of any changes in rules, techniques or equipment associated with the strength training and conditioning of student-athletes.
- Keep accurate records of players’ progress as related to performance in games and practices and use this information to help develop and train the student-athlete.

Minimum Requirements:
- Bachelor’s degree required.
- Current certification as a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) or Strength and Conditioning Coach Certified (SCCC) and current CPR/First Aid certifications are required for the duration of employment.
- Minimum of two years of experience involving the development and management of sport-specific individual and group strength training programs for men and women.

Desired Qualifications:
- Master’s degree preferred.
- Strong leadership, verbal and written communication, and motivational skills.

University of New Haven Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Vision
The University of New Haven is a diverse institution that celebrates, respects, and values individuals of all social identities. We believe that as members of the university community, our socio-cultural differences ignite intellectual growth and foster a culture of understanding that embraces our ever-changing society.
HOW TO APPLY:

Please submit a cover letter, resume, and 2 references that will be held in the strictest of confidence to the following submission link. Please contact us at HRDept@newhaven.edu if you have any additional questions.

The University of New Haven is an Equal Opportunity, Affirmative Action Employer