Confidentiality Level Definitions:
Strictly Confidential refers to the departments obligation to keep all reports confidential unless a report of someone intending to harm themselves or others is made. Confidential in accordance with State Law means that the department will only release information for legal purposes and will otherwise adhere to state confidentiality restrictions. Mostly Confidential refers to a department’s desire to maintain confidentiality at the complainant’s request, but recognizes there may be circumstances (i.e. threats to the larger campus community) that negate the ability to maintain complete confidentiality.

Retaliation:
Retaliation is defined as any intentional adverse action taken by a responding individual or allied third party, absent legitimate nondiscriminatory purposes, against a participant or supporter of a participant in a civil rights resolution proceeding or other protected activity. Retaliation against an individual for alleging harassment, supporting a party bringing a grievance or for assisting in providing information relevant to a claim of harassment, is a serious violation of University policy. Complainants should report any subsequent problems or retaliation to Title IX Coordinator.

Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Policy
Please utilize this document as a resource and guide of your rights and options. For the most comprehensive information and resources, please refer to UNH’s Title IX and Sexual Misconduct Policy.
University of New Haven Definitions

Sexual harassment and/or violence are prohibited by federal and state laws, including the Connecticut General Statutes, Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Higher Education Act of 1972, and can result in civil liability or criminal prosecution. The UNH recognizes that the following definitions may vary depending on their presence in federal or state statutes. Full definitions may be found online in the UNH Student Handbook.

Consent

Defined as an understandable exchange of affirmative words or actions which indicate a willingness to participate in mutually agreed upon sexual activity. It must be informed, freely and actively given and it is the responsibility of the initiator to obtain clear and affirmative responses at each stage of sexual involvement. Silence, or an absence of resistance, does not imply consent. Consent to sexual activity may be withdrawn at any time by communicating the lack of consent to the other person. Sexual activity with someone one should know to be—or based on the circumstances reasonably should know to be—mentally or physically incapacitated (by alcohol or other drug use, unconsciousness or blackout), constitutes a violation of this policy.

Force

Defined as the use of physical violence and/or imposing on someone physically to gain sexual access. Force also includes threats, intimidation (implied threats) and coercion that overcome resistance or produce consent (ATAIX Model Policy).

Non Consensual Sexual Contact

Any intentional sexual touching, however slight, with any object, by any person(s) upon any other person(s) that is without consent and/or by force. Sexual contact includes intentional contact with the breasts, buttocks, groin, or genitals, or touching another with any of these body parts, or making another touch you or yourselves with or on any of these body parts, any intentional bodily contact in a sexual manner, though not involving contact with/df/by breasts, buttocks, groin, genitals, mouth or other orifice.

Non-Consensual Sexual Intercourse

Is any sexual intercourse, however slight, with any object, by any person(s) upon any other person(s) that is without consent and/or by force. Non-consensual sexual intercourse includes vaginal or anal penetration, by a penis, object, mouth, or oral copulation (mouth to genital contact or mouth to breast contact), no matter how slight the penetration or contact. (For further information on sexual assault crimes under CT Law, see CT General Statutes, Sections 53a-65 through 53a-73a).

Sexual Exploitation

Defined as taking non-consensual, unjust, or abusive advantage of another in a sexual or intimate context. Sexual exploitation includes, but is not limited to, prostituting another person; engaging in permitting, reproducing, or facilitating non-consensual viewing, videotaping, photographing, or audio taping of sexual/intimate activity (such as dressing, showering, or similar activity); knowingly infecting another person with a sexually transmitted infection.

Sexual Harassment

Consists of unwanted sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and/or other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:

a. Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person’s academic standing or employment or receiving any other benefit or privilege they are entitled to.

b. Submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as the basis for academic or employment decisions affecting such person; or receiving any other benefit or privilege they are entitled to. This type of sexual harassment is more commonly known as Quid Pro Quo Sexual Harassment.

c. Such conduct has the effect of substantially interfering with a person’s academic or work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive academic working, educational, or living environment. This type of sexual harassment is more commonly known as Hostile Environment due to Sexual Harassment.

Intimate Partner Violence

Any physical or sexual harm against an individual that is committed by a current or former spouse or person in a dating relationship with such individual, and that results from any action of sexual misconduct including sexual assault, non-consensual sexual contact, non-consensual sexual intercourse, sexual exploitation, sexual harassment, dating violence, domestic violence, stalking, and intimidation. Intimate partner violence is a term commonly exchanged with the terms dating violence, domestic violence, and/or relationship abuse; as such, this policy applies to each of these terms.

Stalking

Defined as a course of conduct directed at a specific person that would cause a reasonable person to fear for her or his safety, for the safety of a third person, or to feel extreme emotional distress due to repetitive contact or the perception of such conduct. Stalking behaviors include, for example, non-consensual communication by any means, use of surveillance (in person or via electronic means, collecting information about a person’s routine, friends, family, or coworkers, unwanted visits to a residence, workplace, classroom, worship location, or other locations where an individual is commonly found.

Right to Pursue Legal and/or Institutional Process

The University encourages all those who have experienced any form of sexual misconduct to report the incident promptly, to seek out all available campus and community resources, and pursue University action and/or legal proceedings against the offender.

Preliminary Investigations

Upon receipt of a report, the reporting party will have an opportunity to meet with a member of the Dean of Students staff to discuss the matter and learn about the grievance process. In every report of sexual misconduct, the University’s Title IX Coordinator, or designee, will make an immediate assessment of the risk of harm to individuals and the larger campus community, and will take the necessary steps to address identified risks.

The preliminary investigation will proceed to the extent where a reasonable assessment of the safety of the individual, as well as the campus community, has been made. If a reporting party requests internal confidential, to postpone, or to decline an investigation, the University will consider this request in the light of the assessed risk to the individual and the larger campus community. However, confidentiality cannot be guaranteed if the University determines that a formal investigation is needed in order for it to effectively respond to the reported misconduct and prevent further sexual misconduct from harming other community members. If the reporting party does not consent to an investigation, the University will take all reasonable steps to investigate and respond to the complaint consistent with their request, unless the University determines that a formal investigation is in fact necessary. The University reserves the right to investigate allegations of sexual misconduct absent of a formal grievance, or after its subsequent withdrawal.

Informal Remedies

Informal remedies are available to the reporting party regardless of their decision to pursue a formal University investigation, at no cost to the reporting party. The Dean of Students, or a designee, may utilize remedial measures during any stage of an investigation consistent with a reporting party’s requests. Options include but are not limited to:

• An administrative no-contact order
• Campus transportation or work accommodations
• Residence hall relocation or visitation
• Restrictions; assignment to a different class
• Follow up with the individual by a University official regarding their behavior
• Reminding the individual of University policies on and definitions of sexual misconduct/relationship abuse/stalking

The reporting party may choose to end the informal resolution process at any time and request a formal investigation. If a reporting party initially requests to remain confidential, to postpone, or to decline an investigation, they may later choose to request a formal investigation.

Sanction Statement

The full definition(s) of specific sanctions is located in the Student Code of Conduct.

• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on Non-Consensual or Forced Sexual Contact (where no intercourse has occurred) will likely receive a sanction ranging from probation to expulsion, depending on the severity of the Incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.

• Any student found responsible for violating the policy on stalking will likely receive a recommended sanction ranging from warning to expulsion, depending on the severity of the incident, and taking into account any previous campus conduct code violations.

Formal Investigation

After a preliminary investigation, and consistent with a reporting party’s request, a formal University investigation will commence. Allegations of sexual misconduct involving students are investigated by a University Investigation Team comprised of the Associate Dean of Students, or designee, plus one to two University employees under the advisement of the Title IX Coordinator or designee. Formal investigations are conducted when the alleged behavior occurred during a time when participants were members of the University community.

The Investigation Team will conduct a thorough and impartial investigation by interviewing witnesses, including the responding party, and gather additional information regarding the allegations. Both parties will have the opportunity to present witnesses, impact statements, and other evidence to the Investigation Team. The Investigation Team will summarize the information gathered during the investigation into a final report. The Team will then make a preliminary finding and may recommend a sanction(s) based on the evidence gathered. The preliminary finding will be based on the preponderance of evidence standard. Full details about the formal investigation process may be found online in the UNH Student Handbook.

Formal Hearing Resolution

A formal Sexual Misconduct Board hearing may be the result of a formal investigation, in which either party is requesting a hearing to determine the finding and any applicable sanction(s) or a sanctions only hearing. The Sexual Misconduct Board shall consist of three trained University employees and is advised by a member of the Dean of Students staff. A member(s) of the Investigation Team will testify before the Sexual Misconduct Board, in regards to all information, evidence, and reports collected during the investigation process. All parties have the right to be assisted by and to attend the hearing with an advisor of their choice. The Sexual Misconduct Board will conduct its hearing in accordance with due process protocols outlined in the Code of Conduct. Full details about the formal hearing resolution process may be found online in the UNH Student Handbook.
