STUDENT FLIP: THREE SESSIONS

Supporting Your Transition & Engagement as a Charger

The University of New Haven's commitment to its students' academic, social, and emotional journey means the development of a world-class education and intentional resources to connect and thrive within the University community. Students will learn how to best prepare for college. Dean Ophelie Rowe-Allen will be joined by various student affairs administrators to answer students' questions in this interactive session.

Charger to Charger: Meet Your Orientation Transition Leaders

Students will meet with their OTLs to start building community with fellow Chargers. Students will have the opportunity to learn more about one another and show their Charger pride, vote on their class banner and write letters to themselves.

Course Registration and Advising

Join the Center for Student Success to discuss your curriculum, major requirements, and academic advising. Our success advisors will review your fall course schedule in preparation for your first semester of study. Additionally, learn about the Foundation for Success programs that can help you navigate your first year of college.

12:00 p.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Your Journey Continues in Charger Nation

Hear from your OTLs on how to stay engaged as a Charger during the rest of the summer.

12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Resource Fair

Stop by and visit various offices and staff to learn about resources and services available during your Charger journey.

12:00 p.m. – 2:00 p.m.

Check Out

Pick up your belongings, drop off your keys, say goodbye to your new friends. We look forward to seeing you again in August for Charge In.

The Campus Store will be open from 9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

STUDENT FLIP: TWO SESSIONS

Charger to Charger: Meet Your Orientation Transition Leaders

Students will meet with their OTLs to start building community with fellow Chargers. Students will have the opportunity to learn more about one another and show their Charger pride.

Courageous Conversation: #ThePowerOfWe

The University of New Haven embraces diversity and recognizes our responsibility to foster a diverse, inclusive, and welcoming environment. Join your peers in conversation about diversity, inclusion, and social justice to promote critical self-reflection.

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Readers Theatre

As a University community, there are values and expectations that we all share that provide the framework for how we interact as individual members of the community and speak to who we are and what we stand for as a community. Learn what this means through interactive presentations and small-group conversations with the Orientation and Transition Leaders (OTLs).

7:00 p.m. – 8:00 p.m.

Dinner

8:00 p.m.

Evening Activities: Being in Community

The Orientation student leaders have prepared activities for students to meet other students in an informal atmosphere. Enjoy the activities that will be similar to what you experience on campus during the year from different recognized organizations, resident assistants, or commuter assistants.

Follow along with the schedule at newhaven.edu/orientation.

The Campus Store will be open from 9:00 a.m. – 6:00 p.m.
